MR BROUGHER'S CANDIDACY

THE Republicans at their convention placed Wills Brougher, one of the new investors in Carson property, on its ticket for State Senator. The Appeal is personally acquainted with Mr. Brougher, and has always found him a gentleman of the right stamp, and a progressive man. But it was a mistake to place him on that ticket.

At the present time Mr. Brougher is the Recorder of Nye county, this State, and has not resigned that position. Another peculiar feature is the fact that he is holding an office that he was elected to by the Silver party, on which ticket he made his canvas and election two years ago. For this reason, it seems queer that the Republican party of this county should go out of its way to place in nomination a man that is still in the service of the opposition party.

The question naturally arises, "Why did the Republicans select him?" The first is that Mr. Brougher is an investor in property in this city. The second is that he has made a fortune in Tonopah mines and they regard his financial assistance as the major key in their fight. Without the financial aid that he will lend to the fight he never would have been invited to accept the position, and would still be in the Silver ranks in his home county.

It seems that the Republicans are willing to place a Nye county Silver party office holder at the head of their ticket, rather than take chances with material that is in the ranks in Ormsby county.

THE Republicans are claiming everything in sight. According to their way of seeing things Cleveland, Hawley, Farrington and their whole State ticket is already elected by several thousand majority. Taking their view of the situation it is folly for any Democrat to aspire to any office in the State. But, then things are not always what they seem. There will be a rude awakening after the ballots are cast and counted in November. Instead of their occupying the luxurious offices at Carson, and being the accredited representatives of Nevada in the Congress of the United States, they will be going up Salt river on their biennial trip. It will be a new experience for Judge Hawley, but Farrington and Cleveland have been there before and will pilot the craft. Let the boys laugh and be merry now for the time cometh rapidly when weeping and gnashing of teeth will take the place of hilarity. There is a time for all things, and now is the time for the Republicans of Nevada to brag, bluster and crow.—Independent.

A DISPATCH was sent from Washington the other day to the effect that Speaker Henderson had not refused to be a candidate for re-election to Congress because of his disagreement with his constituents on the question of the tariff and the Trusts. The dispatch went on to say that he was frightened out of the contest because the opposition had threatened to publish to the world his private record, and that, rather than face the music he had withdrawn from public life. The people were not informed whether Henderson was addicted to wine, women or song, or to all three.

The probability is that Henderson was not frightened out of the contest by any fear of the kind stated. Men are not driven out of public life nowadays by such threats. In fact, exposes of the private life of public men are frequently boomerangs that injure not the target, but rather hurt the thrower.—Bee.

THE doctrine of compulsory arbitration has gained quite a foothold in this country. Governor Stone, of Pennsylvania, favors a special session of the Legislature to pass a compulsory arbitration law. Justice Shiras, of the Supreme Court, has come out in favor of such a measure, and Judge Knowlton, of Massachusetts, and Judge Thompson, of Illinois, agree with him. Such papers as the Philadelphia Press, the Springfield Republican, the Baltimore American, the New Orleans Picayune, and the Chicago Evening Post look upon such a remedy with favor.

IT is said that Rear-Admiral Crowinshield will ask for retirement before the winter maneuvers in the Caribbean Sea, in which he would have to be under the orders of Rear-Admiral Higginson.

Verily, these old sea dogs of our navy hate one another as fervently as do prima donas.

SPEAKER HENDERSON says he thoroughly agrees with the President on the trust question. This must be taken as confirmation of the Democratic contention that Roosevelt is not inimical to trusts. Certainly Mr. Henderson is friendly to the combinations and he couldn't very well agree with the President unless the latter were friendly also.

IF the United States army is immaculate in every department, how does it happen that the transport Solace, which arrived in San Francisco Sunday, brought home thirty prisoners.

THE tobacco war in Great Britain is about to be ended in the usual way. The trusts will combine and make the consumers pay the cost of their little war.
